Extreme heat: Safety first!

Summers in Memphis can be brutal, with the average daily temperature in August in the 90s. The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) offers recommendations to stay safe during periods of extreme heat.

You can take these steps to prevent heat-related illnesses, injuries and deaths during hot weather:

- Stay in an air-conditioned indoor location as much as possible.
- Drink plenty of fluids.
- Wear loose, lightweight, light-colored clothing and sunscreen.
- Schedule outdoor activities carefully.
- Pace yourself.
- Take cool showers or baths to cool down.
- Check on a friend or neighbor and have someone do the same for you.
- Do not leave children or seniors in cars.
- Check the local news for health and safety updates.

The Power of One

Plus-1 helps keep the lights on for many in need. “The face of our average client has changed,” says MIFA Emergency Services Director Phyllis Phillips. “They used to be mostly single mothers, but now we see seniors, single fathers, people without children and two-parent households.”

Some have been laid off. Others work without benefits. Many are the sole breadwinners for their families, like Joy, a single mom who was laid off in February and denied unemployment benefits. She has never asked for assistance or been on food stamps. She said of Plus-1, “It took a load off my shoulders. Then in return, I can help someone else by giving $1 or more.”

Established in 1982, Plus-1 is a partnership between MIFA and MLGW that provides utility assistance to people in financial crisis. In 2011, aid requests increased 19 percent over the previous year.

Plus-1 is funded through contributions from MLGW customers. More than 1,300 new individuals have given this year—visit mifa.org/plus-1 to join them.

MLGW Earns a Perfect Score of 100 on Its Most Recent Sanitary Survey

A recent survey by the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) recently reported a score of 100 to MLGW’s water system. The Sanitary Survey is conducted every two years on MLGW’s water system and is, in essence, TDEC’s report card for MLGW’s water system. The survey measures water system management, treatment, monitoring, storage, pump facilities, controls and compliance. MLGW’s most recent Sanitary Survey earned a perfect 599 on a 599 point scale. The Division has earned high marks in the past, but this is the first 100!
