

RESIDENTIAL BUILDER REBATE (RBR)

There is a per-unit rebate available for builders developing single-and multi-family homes in strategic areas like Uptown, Binghampton, Klondike and South Memphis/Soulsville.

Qualified builders could receive rebates up to $7,500 per single-family unit and up to $1,500 per multi-family unit through the RBR incentive program for residential electric infrastructure installation costs.
